Lorenzo Romar, our dynamic keynote speaker, is the Head Basketball Coach at the University of Washington. Romar played basketball for UW from 1978 to 1980, was drafted by the Golden State Warriors and spent five years playing in the NBA. Romar is known by his fellow coaches as one of the top basketball recruiters in the country. He is respected as a genuine and optimistic person. Romar earned the prestigious Coach Wooden "Keys to Life" award for his outstanding character. Lorenzo Romar is married to Leona Romar, with whom he has three lovely daughters. In 2006, Lorenzo and Leona founded the Lorenzo Romar Foundation for the prevention of domestic violence and educational assistance for disadvantaged youth, as well as other charitable causes.
